FINAL OK IS GIVEN CALLAN PARK BY SSF

The resolution for the annexation of Callan Park to South San Francisco was passed unanimously following its second and final reading Monday night at the City Council meeting.

Of the approximate 60 persons in the audience, only two appeared before the microphone to protest the annexation.

The ordinance will become effective in 30 days at which time the Callan interests will be indebted to the city for five acres of recreational land, plus $105,000 for its development, and $354,503 for a sewage system, independent of treatment.

City Manager Eugene Aiello said he felt that the agreements reached between the city and the Callans were "good, clean ones. We took our time and came up with a document about which there can be very little misunderstanding on either side."

When asked if he thought the "town house" or small lot plan of the Callans, originally rejected, was likely to come up again, he said that the Planning Commission is currently studying the city's zoning ordinance and that it is possible that a future revision might make it possible for the Callans to revise this plan providing there is proof of public acceptance.

The 652-acre development, originally turned down by Daly City voters, lies to the west of the city of South San Francisco and stretches to Skyline Boulevard.

Aiello said that most everyone concerned with the annexation is "well pleased with the outcome of the agreement and glad of the opportunity for increased community growth."

Home Improvement Week Set April 19

The third annual Home Improvement Week will be staged in Daly City beginning April 19 to run through the 26th.

Endorsed by the City administration and the Daly City Chamber of Commerce, the week-long event urges merchants and citizens throughout the community to fix-up and paint-up their homes and places of business.

The campaign is scheduled to tie-in with National Do-It-Yourself Week from April 16 to the 23, and National Home Improvement Month in May.

On Wednesday, April 19, Marchbanks Publications will issue a special tabloid section featuring hundreds of ideas on how local residents can go about sprucing up their shops and homes for the benefit and morale of the entire city.

The section also will contain pictures and news stories covering all phases and new developments of the home improvement industry.

Special prize merchandise to be offered by local merchants will also be featured. The week is sponsored annually by the publishing firm in behalf of civic betterment.

County Labor Is Opposed To Charter Changes

Labor in San Mateo County is unanimously opposed to the proposed County Charter Amendments D, E, F, I and L, it was announced today by Henry Schwab, president of the Building and Construction Trades Council of San Mateo County and Thomas A. Small, president of the San Mateo Central Labor Council.

The election is set for April 18. Both organizations, which comprise more than 50 unions in the county with a combined membership of more than 25,000, have adopted resolutions which declare the militant opposition of labor to propositions D, E, F, I and L.

"These proposals deprive the citizens of San Mateo County of Planning Commission Accepts Revised Church Tower Height

A revision in height of the Holy Cross Lutheran Church tower in Pacifica was approved Monday night by the Pacifica Planning Commission.

The height was lowered by the church's architect from a planned 126 feet to 114 feet.

The planning consultant's report said that he could see no great objection to the tower height as revised.

"Although the reduction is really significant percentage-wise," he told the commission, "I believe the tower will not materially affect ocean and valley views now available to property owners to the east."

Home sites were not available in that area when the permit for the 126-foot tower was first requested, according to Mel Davis, city planning administrator.

In other action, the commission held over until its April 17 meeting a request for rezoning of the Sea Bowl property.

The request was delayed because of lack of information as to Highway commission plans in that area, plus specific intent of usage by the owners of the property.

A plan for expansion of the Linda Mar Shopping Center was also held over because a preliminary study of the plans revealed unsatisfactory parking facilities and general flow of traffic in the proposed new section. The matter will come up again at a special meeting of the commission April 10.

Pacifica Mayor Plans 2nd Term Despite Hassle

If Mayor Harold Feyge of Pacifica has any say in the controversial matter, he will continue as mayor of this coastal community for at least another year.

Traditionally the month of April is the time for the annual change of gavel, according to City Manager Karl Baldwin, however, he added that despite this so-called precedent, a changeover in leadership has not always taken place each year.

Mayor Feyge's argument is that it requires at least one year at the city's helm to become really qualified in the job, adding that just when one reaches the point where he is able to do the job he set out to do, he is asked to step down in favor of a colleague.

Feyge also added that of the present councilmen his attendance record is second best of the five.

He said that if certain persons or the populace at large would like to see the annual mayoralty hassle brought to an end, they should petition for a special election in which to decide whether or not the mayor should be directly elected for a four-year term by the people.

Mayor Feyge also expressed dissatisfaction with the present alternate week council "study sessions," adding that he feels the procedure ought to be reviewed for possible ways in which to increase public attendance at regular council meetings.

McLEOD PASSES WHILE TAKING MASONIC VOWS

Services will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at Halsted & Co., 1133 Sutter, San Francisco, for Ward McLeod, 68, 201 Garden Lane, who died suddenly Monday night of a heart attack during a Masonic lodge meeting.

McLeod was taking his second degree in Masonry at the time of his death.

Born in Bozeman, Mont., McLeod had come to San Francisco in 1945 and had lived in this community for the past four years.

He was building engineer from the Pacific Union Club in San Francisco.

He and his wife, Lillian, were active in the Daly City Garden Club, both having been past presidents.

He was a member of the

Rollingwood Asks For Lower House Payments

The Rollingwood Round Robin Trust Fund Study Committee yesterday through its chairman requested from the T. J. Bettes Co. of California an immediate average $18 monthly reduction in house payments, based on the committee's interpretation of terms of the deeds of trust.

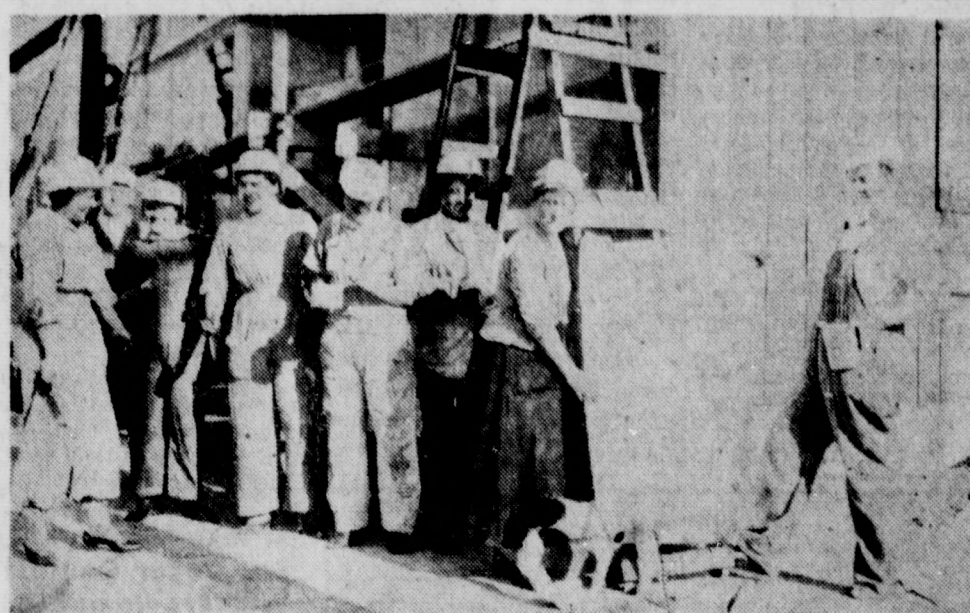

If the committee's proposal is accepted, either with or without litigation or arbitration, the house payment reductions could vary in individual cases from none for some few to as little as $6 for a considerable number and to as high as $26 at the other extreme.

The bid is based on terms in the deeds of trust which the committee believes provide for paying taxes in two installments and on excess tax and insurance cushions which the group considers to have been set up by the mortgage firm in the high house payments for 1960 about which Rollingwood and adjacent areas have been complaining for several months.

This action came shortly after

WOMEN BUILT OWN CLUBHOUSE IN '15

(The following is an exact reprint of a story carried in a San Francisco newspaper on February 15, 1918, concerning a group of Daly City wives who built their own Red Cross Clubhouse in which they could conduct their charitable war work. The story and pictures come through the courtesy of Mrs. Frances Rickmann of Daly City who was one of the clubhouse builders. Ed.)

"The wives of Daly City have built their own Red Cross clubhouse. They couldn't find a place to meet, so they decided to build one."

"The women donned overalls, wielded hammers and saws and brushes and—Daly City has a Red Cross clubhouse for the war work of its women."

"The women did find a carpenter who agreed to assist them but when he came down on the job one morning and found only women in overalls working, he backed out."

"Mrs. Delia Mohr, who runs the moving picture show in Daly City, was foreman on the job."

"She was assisted by Mrs. Henry Toft, wife of the Chief of Police; Mrs. Mary Meeks, whose husband is one of the city trustees; Mrs. Frances Rickmann and Mrs. Clemence Cochran."

"When the chief of police and the city trustee came around one morning and found their wives plugging away at the job in overalls, they nearly keeled over."

May 2 Is New Date Set For Freeway Hearing

The California Highway Commission today advanced the date of a public hearing in Daly City concerning the location of a freeway route for State Sign Route 1 between Skyline Boulevard and Junipero Serra Boulevard from May 26 to May 2.

The time and place of the hearing remain unchanged, 10 a.m. at the Daly City War Memorial Community Center.

Only the section of Sign Route 1 between Skyline Boulevard and Junipero Serra Boulevard will be considered at the hearing. Discussion will be limited to the adopted route and a recently studied alternate.

Use Of War Memorial For High School Baccalaureates OK'd

Permission was granted the Daly City Ministerial Association to use the War Memorial gymnasium for baccalaureate services for Jefferson and Westmoor High School graduates on Sunday, June 11, at a recent meeting of the city's Parks & Recreation Commission.

The schools will be charged an hourly rental of $3.

Girl Scouts of the Parkview neighborhood were given permission to use the lower floor of the War Memorial free of charge on Saturday, June 10, for their international program.

Daly City Players' request to use the entire gymnasium for a dress rehearsal on May 11 was disapproved.

The board suggested that the Players hold their dress rehearsal sometime during the two previous weeks as they already have tied up the gymnasium for two consecutive evenings, May 12 and 13, for the presentation of the play, "Champagne Comedy."

Mrs. Pat Fawcett, representing KIP (Kids in Performance) appeared at the meeting to explain the group's program and its desire to recruit adult volunteers and youngsters into the organization.

She explained that KIP was formed in 1957 and chartered by the State of California in 1958 with headquarters at 144 Hillside boulevard. This address, although it is the same as the Department of Recreation's, was news to the entire board.

Mrs. Fawcett was emphatic in her desire to know whether KIP is welcome in Daly City. She indicated that if she could be assured it was, the organization would in turn approach the schools and PTA for help in recruiting more members from Daly City.

It was suggested that when the group became better organized in the city, that a written request of its requirements be submitted to the commission.

In other business it was reported that repairs on Edgewood Park have been completed.

It was also reported that the fence at Frankfort Park had been installed, that grading would follow, and then the turf area would be reseeded. The reseeding entails closing the area for approximately four months, hence it will not be available for use until late summer. It was suggested that the entrance to the park be closed and a sign posted indicating

Armed Gang Robs Millets, Is Caught In Menlo Park

A gang of four led by a juvenile was arrested early Saturday morning by Menlo Park Police following a series of armed robberies in which the Millets Auto Court, 7700 Mission street, Colma, was one of the victims.

Chief Ray Savage of the Broadmoor Police District said that the gang was apprehended after a gun fight in which a Menlo officer was struck over the head with a revolver. The wound required six stitches, he said.

Only three of the four men were involved in the Millets robbery, Chief Savage said. They included: Wesley Allan Johnson, 17, of Hamilton Air Force Base; Robert Lee Tucker, 24, 150 Downey street, San Francisco; and Watson Joseph Askev, 28, of 565 Navy road, San Francisco. The fourth man, charged with participation in the other robberies was Bobby Lewis Martin, 18, 347 Haight street, San Francisco.

Chief Savage said that a grand jury indictment will be sought against Johnson despite his being a juvenile. Acting as leader of the gang, Johnson was charged with possession and use of a deadly weapon and is said to have been involved in alleged attempted rape.

The three men who were involved in the Colma robbery, all negroes, struck at 4 a.m. Friday morning. Victim David Miller, motel manager, told Savage that the night bell rang at that time and he opened the door to admit one man. He then went around behind the counter and the suspect registered. As he was signing the register, Miller said, he put his hand in his coat pocket, simulating a gun, and said, "This is a hold up," then told Miller to climb over the counter. He next grabbed Miller by his robe and pulled him over the desk causing a revolver in Miller's robe pocket to fall out.

"The man picked up the gun, saying, 'You're lucky you're not dead.' He then told Miller to open the door which had been re-locked. Two other men entered, one armed with a gun, the other with an eight-inch piece of pipe.

The picture display, depicting the early days of the area, is the first of a series of events scheduled to call attention to Daly City's Golden Anniversary which will be commemorated in a special, week long celebration in October.

The Youth Art Exhibit, largest art show in the Bay Area, will be held April 13 through April 16 at the Daly City War Memorial Building.

It will feature more than 600 exhibits of various forms of art by students of the Jefferson Union High School District and pupils of the Jefferson Elementary School District.

WSIA Votes For Legal Action Against Klein

The Westlake Subdivisions Improvement Association Board of Directors Monday night voted overwhelmingly to take legal action in the "Klein Case."

The directors voted 5-1 to approve the recommendation of the association's architectural committee which cited not one, but seven violations of the W.S.I.A. by-laws, and endorsed litigation.

Defendants are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Klein of 97 Lake Forest drive who removed their lawn and replaced it with ivy without W.S.I.A. approval.

Voting for court action were directors Emory Schoolcraft, William Morrisette, Leonard Brown, Daryl Ober and Bob Brachman.

A lone dissenting ballot was cast by director Dr. Alan Unger who felt that the action, to be filed by association attorney Hartley R. Appleton, should not involve the ivy issue.

Dr. Unger, however, stated that "he was in accord with the spirit of the action and agreed that the board was left no alternative when the Kleins maintained an uncompromising attitude through months of futile negotiation."

A seventh director, McRobert Stewart, who was unable to attend the all-important meeting, advised board president Emory Schoolcraft that he would have joined the majority had he been present to vote.

During lengthy discussion prior to the balloting at the W.S.I.A. open meeting, the directors repeatedly noted that they were left no choice because they felt duty bound to protect the interests of thousands of homeowners who have expressed disapproval of the Kleins' independent action.

"If this type of individual disregard of restrictions and covenants running with the land is allowed to continue, it would become cancerous and destroy the attractiveness—not to mention property values—in one of northern California's model subdivisions," it was pointed out.

Attorney Appleton stated: "There is no question that the restrictions and covenants are contained in the original deed to the Klein property."

The case will be filed in the Superior Court of San Mateo County.

The association will ask that the Klein front yard landscaping be restored to its original condition.

The board of directors also voted unanimously to take court action against Mr. and Mrs. James E. Terry, 1055-87th Street, for violation of restrictions.

Specifically, the Terrys are charged with destroying an association controlled palm tree growing on the public easement adjacent to the street in front of the Terry home.

NEW COURT HOUSE BIDS OPENING SET

The opening of bids for the proposed north county court house on Tuesday, April 25, was confirmed this week by Supervisor James V. Fitzgerald.

The new court house, to be erected on Old Mission Road near Grand avenue in South San Francisco, is expected to be constructed this year.

Fitzgerald described the building as "similar to the court house in San Mateo with the exception that previously planned offices for members of the County Board of Supervisors will become instead a law library for area lawyers."

Fitzgerald explained that the board did not feel it needed offices in the court house, adding that the inclusion of a law library would eliminate county attorneys having to go to San Francisco for their research and reference work.

The new structure will cost an estimated $325,000 and will contain three court rooms—two municipal courts and the north county's one superior court.

At present the north county has only one municipal judge and municipal court, however, Assemblyman Louis Francis has introduced a bill asking for a second one for this area. It is expected that if and when this bill is passed, a new judgeship will be established in October of this year.

The north county courthouse will serve all communities from Daly City south to San Bruno, including such cities as Brisbane and Pacifica.

The new court house will be the second county building erected on this plot of county-owned land. The other is the health and welfare building which was begun more than three years ago.

W'lake Merchants Egg Decor Contest Winners Named

Two 13-year-old local girls recently combined their talents and won double honors recently in the Westlake Merchants Association Egg Decorating Contest.

Winning top prize in the 10-13 age group along with the Grand Prize Award were Judy Pardini and Alice Cantwell.

The girls won $50 in merchandise orders and one of them will have her family treated to dinner at Joe's of Westlake on Mothers' Day.

Chucky Eaneff, age 5, walked off with the 5 and under age group award of $25 in merchandise orders. Other $25 merchandise award winners were Margaret and Jeanette Patterson who won the 5-9 age group.

HARD at it in their overalls and armed with hammers, nails and saws, these courageous Daly City women back in February, 1915, labor valiantly as they construct their own

Red Cross clubhouse in which to carry on their vital war work. The women, foremaned by the late Mrs. Della Mohr, finished the entire job themselves, including the painting.

Women Built

"They went in search of the husbands of the other women and en masse tried to call them off the job."

"But it was to late. The women had started work and they were going to finish it. All arguments to stop work and let hubby do it were of no avail."

"Hubby had had his chance and neglected it; now wifey would do it."

"So, the men stood aside and the women worked and finally from a vacant lot rose a handsome one-story structure, all painted and papered and new."

"It was hard work at first and we were stiff and sore from the job, but it was fun," commented Mrs. Mohr.

"I got a couple of black and blue marks from flying chips," said Mrs. Toft.

"I hit my finger instead of the nail a few times," said Mrs. Meekes.

"To celebrate the completion of their clubhouse the women of Daly City are planning an over all dance next week. Every woman attending will wear a pair of overalls."

move and when she did not react fast enough to suit him, he struck her, Miller said. The Millers were then tied back to back on the bed with cord and TV wire. They also were gagged.

The following morning the same gang assertedly robbed the Hilton Hotel at the International Airport where six persons were physically abused. While officers were investigating this attack, the gang hit twice in the Redwood City area.

They were then observed by Menlo Park Police who gave chase and stopped the men. A fight ensued and the gang escaped but was caught again and taken into custody about two blocks away.

All members of the gang have previous records.

The men are being held in the San Mateo County jail. All were identified by the victims and each admitted his role in the Colma robbery, Chief Savage said.

and Alice Cantwell. Alice and Judy share honors as they combined their talents. Chucky snagged the 5-year age group award.

Both rings were of platinum.

that it would be closed for repairs until further notice.

Mrs. Jack White said that children and teen-agers have been frequenting Frankfort Park despite the repairs going on, that her children had witnessed the store room being broken into by two boys, which incident had been promptly reported to the Police Department; that teen-agers had been staging "drinking" parties in the park, etc. It was suggested that Mr. Chuck Vincent discuss with Chief Roland Petrocchi the possibility of more police patrolling of Frankfort Park and also prompt response to calls relative to behavior in the parks.

Augie Conci suggested that the commission look at the repairs being done on Frankfort street, especially the sidewalk fronting the park.

Vincent reported that the City Manager and City Council had agreed that funds for a clubhouse at Lincoln Park be included in the next fiscal year's budget.

Vincent showed the commission a preliminary sketch of a floor plan for the Lincoln clubhouse and requested suggestions on it.

Conci reported that "turpentine beetles" have been attacking pine trees in the various parks in Daly City. Apparently, these beetles have been converging all around the high Sierras. Since he had spotted the trouble early, with the state laboratory in Sacramento confirming it, the situation can be remedied by spraying the infected trees. Cost figures for spraying have been received and work will be done as soon as possible.

Drive Against 'Injustices' By Mortgage Holders Grows Strong

Vice-Chairman Robert Kesling, 150 Birch Court, reported his drive to enlist the support of San Bruno and Peninsula businessmen for S. B. 1015 as an anti-recession move was gathering strength.

John Romano, secretary of the San Bruno Chamber of Commerce, conferred with Kesling briefly just before the meeting but could not stay for the session.

Kesling announced plans for reorganization and expansion of the 12-member Round Robin Committee to 25-30 members in preparation for the coming legislative support drive.

The counseling board was raised to six members with the addition of Warren D. Wynkoop, 2401 Trenton drive, who accepted the post of public relations consultant.

Louis A. Christensen, 170 Birch Court, agreed at the meeting to serve in the new Properties Committee capacity, in the Strategic and Tactical Operations Section.

Judge Branson Urges All County Residents To Help The Handicapped

There's still plenty of time to do your share to help your handicapped neighbors, it was announced today by Superior Judge J. A. Branson, chairman of the Easter Seal Drive.

Judge Branson urged all San Mateo County residents who have not sent in a contribution to this year's appeal, to do so in the next few days. He pointed out in the event you have lost the envelope sent to all homes with the Easter Seals, you simply put your check in an envelope, address it to "Crippled Children, care of Postmaster, and it will be delivered to the Rehabilitation and Research Center operated by the Easter Seal Society in Burlingame.

So far $25,318 has been received from county residents, but more is needed to meet the operating costs of this important agency which does its good work right here in the county, aiding the 13,145 local citizens who are handicapped.

"Out of 122,615 sets of Easter Seals mailed out, approximately 13 per cent have been heard from," Judge Branson declared, "which means that about 98,000 families have not yet contributed."

"I am sure that more people would send in their contribution, no matter how small, if they could see the wonderful work accomplished at the Rehabilitation Center, restoring crippled people to a point where they can perform useful tasks and take their normal place in the world," Judge Branson emphasized.

U. R. Kendree is chairman of the drive in this area, habilitation Center, restoring

Letters To The Editor

Sheldon Prezant Thanks Papers For Publicity

Dear Mr. Bradshaw:

First of all, I want to personally thank you and the fine staff of Marchbanks Publications for the article on my entering the race in the Jefferson School District.

In any elected office it is an honor to run knowing that win or lose, you have the privilege of representing the people.

The candidates have been invited to speak and become acquainted with the P.T.A. Chapters in our district. I certainly look forward to the opportunity of meeting with these people and learning their problems, objectives and plans.

Abraham Lincoln once said, "I will study and prepare myself and some day my chance will come." Throughout our history, the unequal educational system of our country has offered and will continue to offer to all people the chance to succeed, regardless of background, race, religion or creed. It is through this wonderful American System of ours, that even I am offered the chance to represent my neighbors.

Sincerely,
Sheldon M. Prezant

SEN. DOLWIG INTRODUCES BILL AID NARCOTIC INVESTIGATION

Senator Richard J. Dolwig said he is determined that strong strict anti-dope laws should result from the current legislative session and that he is introducing a bill giving peace officers more access to evidence while still retaining Constitutional rights and safeguards.

He said the bill permits evidence of narcotic violations to be obtained anywhere on the grounds of a suspect's property except within the physical confines of the dwelling itself.

"If we are to do away with the element within our society which thrives on either the consumption or sales of narcotics, we must not handicap law enforcement officers charged with the seizing the evidence necessary for trial and prosecution," he said.

"I cannot hypocritically demand the elimination of dope traffic, yet refuse peace officers access to the evidence."

Senator Dolwig's bill provides:

... In any criminal action or proceeding to enforce the provisions (of the narcotics law) ... evidence consisting of a narcotic or narcotics, seized by any peace officer outside the curtilage of a dwelling house, shall not be excluded because of the manner in which it was obtained unless its admission would deny due process of law ...

"It is for the protection of the public that I have chosen to continue the fight for legal protection in the field of narcotics," Dolwig said. "Our laws are so softened today that they no longer provide adequate protection for the majority of the public. Instead, they protect the narcotics offender.

"The dope peddler has no conscience. He will sell living death to anyone. He will sell to innocent children, forever ruining their lives, and in California his risk is very slight because of the legal loopholes available to him. Why do we tolerate this? Why do we pay millions of dollars every year for dedicated police officers to protect the innocent when dope peddlers are free to spread this hellish commodity?"

"The subject of narcotics has been the most important matter in the legislative program in the 1961 session. The Senate has already passed a bill for stronger narcotic penalties, but if a narcotics criminal is arrested his chances of conviction may be very slim because of laws that protect him."

City Employees Get Training In Telephone Use

Daly City has always believed in the philosophy of continuous improvement in the caliber of services which are provided to the public. The city has provided training programs, both formal and informal, to the city employees, which have covered a multitude of subjects. Some courses have been made mandatory, while other have been voluntary.

The most recent training program dealt with improving the efficiency of the employees using the telephone as an instrument of communication. On Friday, March 17, 1961, the Public Telephone and Telegraph Company conducted an hour-long seminar on techniques of improving telephone usage. Employees from the City of Daly City and South San Francisco participated in this training.

Ruth Vannie, Cecile McCormick, Barbara Hitchcock, June Delander, Virginia Hayne, Phyllis Seudale, and Margaret Ehmke of South San Francisco, and Arlene Keough, Maxine Gates, Anna Ohlendorf, Evelyn Weckerle, Eva Baldwin, Thelma Stockman, Marian Benedetti, Florence O'Neill, Helen Sherwood, Muriel Mermon, and Ann Madsen of Daly City participated in the training.

Many Activities Are Planned For 50th Civic Celebration

Activities for Daly City's forthcoming 50th Anniversary Celebration beginning October 7 and lasting the entire week, will be many and varied, some solemn, some gay, but all wonderful.

Against a backdrop of carnival atmosphere, there will be everything to do, everything to see, everything to hear and nothing to miss.

In the department of something to do, or enter, here are just a few of the planned activities. There will be offered a bowling tournament, a golf tournament, a flag contest, a home garden photo contest, street dances, and a beard contest!

For those who appreciate the solemnity of the occasion, church services will be offered by local churches to those of all faiths.

In the way of something to see, a few examples are, an art show, a Queen contest, flower show, a dog show, the sports tournament a colorful parade led by several bands offering plenty of excitement and gusto to the scene, fireworks, children's dancing events, and an old-time picture exhibit.

Besides a band-concert to hear, there will be the roar of planes overhead in an air show to be put on by the Armed Forces.

Youth will take over various civic posts and "run the city" for a day.

Plans by the Civic Celebration Committee are still in the preliminary stage, but as the weeks go by, the tempo will speed up.

Theme for the week-long event is "A Century of Progress in Half the Time." Arthur J. Bodien is chairman.

Calif. Frontiers Theme For Annual Redwood Parade

With a theme of "California Frontiers—Old and New," entries are now open for the 22nd annual Redwood City rodeo parade on July 4th. Chairman Ferris Miles of the sponsoring Peninsula Celebration Association parade committee announced this week.

The parade annually attracts upwards of 80,000 persons and is listed as the largest Independence Day parade in Northern California.

This year floats and other entries may carry out the theme of what life was like in early California days and also modern concepts of the 20th Century, Miles said. About $5000 in cash and trophies will be awarded the winners in the various parade divisions.

Parade entries should be addressed to Mrs. Louise Lake, 1231 Jefferson Avenue, Redwood City.

Historical societies and early day pioneer Peninsula families are being asked to contribute entry ideas to make the parade historically authentic as well as colorful, Miles said.

Robert Eskew's . . . WORDS TO READ BY

So now that it's a matter of black and white that I'm a full-fledged columnist, there's only one thing left to do—write a column.

This is where the hard part comes in.

Would be wonderful if I could simply sit back and ride on the laurels (or whatever you want to call them) of that initial offering.

Like, I love to tell people how in 1938 I was a District Yo-Yo Champion or how in 1936 I won a paddle-ball contest at a neighborhood Hollywood bistro . . . even though I haven't touched a yo-yo or paddle ball since and wouldn't know what in the heck to do with them anymore if I did.

But nobody can take it away from me that I was champ in those days. I've still got the royal blue sweaters with the pseudo Olympic type shields on them to prove it. The family cats love them. That proves they have a true sense of history and all around good taste.

I did think of doing a column about the Finch-Tregoff case entitled, "The Third Time Is A Charm," but I couldn't figure out how to ring Carole Brent and Lloyd Downton into it for that local twist. The Johnsons wouldn't fit either. Neither would Liz Taylor. The only thing local about her is the numbing effect she has on the male brain.

I thought too about doing one on that shifty little virus that wormed its way into my vitals this past weekend and nearly made a basket case out of me in less than 72 hours. But that seemed too gory and full of self pity.

So I decided to do an opus on "The First Time I Saw Daly City," or "Whatever Happened to the Creamery?"

I've only been here officially since March 27 but in that time at least 100 kindly souls have gone on at great length to me about one thing and another, assuming all the time that I was hip to the local landscape, etc.

I try to intervene before they get too involved to let them know that I'm really a stranger here but . . . and then they feel bad and apologetic and begin all over again with a sort of primer approach, like, "Once upon a time there was this city and it was called . . ." and I have to interrupt again.

I just clear my throat two or three times, pause dramatically, then ask, "Say . . . ah . . . what ever happened to the Creamery?"

Reactions are mixed. "Some answer, 'Creamery?' What creamery you mean?" They're out to get me to tip my hand. I know. So, me—I come back coy. "What creamery you think I mean?" And we keep this up until it gets pretty nauseous.

Others say quite suspiciously, "So what's the Creamery got to do with it?" then summon up my most insouciant tones and answer, "Heavens, man, don't you think that's a question that could best be answered by YOU?" And I snort a little, just a little.

But then there's the down-to-earth guy who asks quite simply, most directly, altogether ingeniously, "How'd you know about the Creamery?"

Warning to his simplicity and not wanting to string such a good fellow along, I answer in kind: "Because, friend, I was there."

This creates an immediate bond between us, a rapport, as the Indians say, and he listens with obvious nostalgia as I recount "The Last Time I Saw the Creamery" (a combined title).

It goes back rather anciently to 1944 when I was a raw enlistee in the United States Coast Guard (is there another one?) and was sent for boot camp training to the charming little bayside resort of Alameda.

After listening to my leaping, backfiring heart (it beat, I fear, like a bass drum for the distant hearths of home), shaking my head (I think they were all out of my hat size), asking me if I liked girls ("You mean better than women?" I inquired being only 17 at the time), impaling me on foot-long needles (I swear one of the rapier could do both arms with a single jab) and decking me out in a "wardrobe" that "fit like a glove" (motorman's I think) because they said it did, even though it wouldn't stay up or on, they finally assigned me to Company C (for Cell).

Here I came to share a bunk or rack or pad or sack with little Joe . . . (anyone able to fill in this unfortunate blank in my life will receive free autographed copies of my next book, "Cremery I Have Known") who, lo and behold, was a proud resident of gleaming white Daly City high atop Mission Street Hill.

Joe and I became fast friends or buddies or pals or mates and when it came time for our first magical liberty, nothing doing but that I should accompany him to his Daly City abode.

On the trip across the bay from Oakland and up Mission Street Hill, as he had for the past four weeks, Joe kept up his steady incantation, "Wait'll you see the Creamery!"

Now Joe was of Irish descent, I believe, and possibly had origins that went back to Boston (South Boston most likely) and he had a way of saying "creamery" that was like no other sound I had ever heard. At best I might describe it as oozing with ice cream, sweet syrups and thick, rich malted milks. It was a little like "creamahree" but that scarcely does it justice. He also referred to "quarters" as "gwahtahs" and to "park your car" as "pawk yuh cawh." And that hardly makes it to either.

Many is the delicious visit made to the old Daly City Creamery at the top of the hill and many's the dark-eyed lass I sipped a soda with in that excellent emporium of visceral delight . . . thanks to good old Joe.

But over the years, since our separation following boot camp, I have never been able to remember Joe's last name. I've talked often of him and thought fondly of those cuddly, caloric nights in the old creamery, but his last name, it seems, has eluded me forever. I call him "Joe Daly" now because it just doesn't seem that "Joe" alone is quite enough.

I've thought of going down to Jeff and looking up the graduating class of '44 in hopes that I might find his name but somehow haven't gotten around to it. Could be he still remains and like myself, although I am a prodigal of many years, laments the frozen ice cream splendor of the old Daly City Creamery that (like Joe for me) is only a delightful memory at best. Anybody here seen Joe?

These have been placed in Aquarium tank 30 while the cone shells are in the tank in front of the desk in the main foyer.

How many times has this man saved your life?

LIKE most of us, when the kids are in the car, you get that "extra careful" feeling. You know, that's the same way your friend—the service station dealer—feels when you stop by to see him.

Over the years, you've probably come to take your service station dealer pretty much for granted. But when your kids are riding with you, aren't you glad you took his advice and had your brakes checked? His suggestions—small though they may seem to be—may have saved your life more than once. His interest in your safety is more than interest in a customer—it's concern about a friend.

And what a valuable "extra" if your own service station gives you S&H Green Stamps.

You know, of course, that half the families in America save them.

Your S&H Green Stamps make it possible for you to choose from over 1,500 top-quality, famous brand-name items at your S&H Green Stamp Redemption Store.

San Andreas Fault Movement Studied by U.C.

Lateral displacement of the sides of the San Andreas fault north of San Francisco may not have been as great as displacement along the fault south of San Francisco during the past six million years, according to Geologist Charles G. Higgins of the University of California, Davis.

In a paper published in the January Geological Society of America Bulletin, Higgins stated that lateral movement along the fault north of San Francisco may have been as little as a mile, and probably not more than four to ten miles, since middle Pliocene time. Earlier geologists' estimates, based on displacement south of San Francisco, range from 20 to 30 miles during the same period, said Higgins, chairman of the department of geological sciences at Davis.

Higgins based his estimates on six years' field work along the northern section of the fault, which caused the famous 1906 quake. From present positions on opposite sides of the fault of areas that appear to have been marine entrances to middle Pliocene basins east of the fault, he arrived at the low displacement figure. The basins, once under the ocean, contain fossil-bearing sandstones called Ohlson Ranch formation, east of Stewart's Point, and Merced formation, east of Bodega Bay.

Vertical movement during this same period has raised the east side of the fault about 500 feet higher than the west side in some areas, possibly everywhere north of Bolinas, said Higgins. However, very little vertical displacement has been observed along the fault south of San Francisco. This may mean that the vertical displacement north of San Francisco is not attributable to the San Andreas movements, but to movements on some other, branching fault, such as the hypothetical San Bruno fault.

Dr. Dan Lawson, right, accepts the plaque on behalf of Senator Dilworth, absent because of illness. The plaque was "awarded in recognition of distinguished service to the schools of California."

Laguna Salada 8th Grade Parents Participate In Articulation Plan

Parents of eighth grade Laguna Salada School District children had an opportunity to take part in a program of articulation, preparing their children for high school next year.

Two evening meetings were held recently, one at Linda Mar School and another at Sharp Park School. All parents of 8th graders were invited and over 150 parents took advantage of the opportunity to become informed about the high school program.

Dr. Harold Tonini, principal of Terra Nova, welcomed the parents at the orientation meeting and introduced the Laguna Salada principals, Mrs. Carlen, Dean of Girls, gave a brief outline of the high school's five track system including general, university, business, practical arts, and fine arts programs. Following this discussion, Mr. Ribera, assistant principal, talked about some special considerations.

Discussion groups were then formed with parents, led by the counselor to whom their child had been assigned. Individual questions were answered in these groups.

The principals met informally after the meeting and discussed some ideas for further improvement of articulation. Dr. Tonini suggested possible use of cumulative records which the high schools could continue to use, and another suggestion was made of additional articulation of curricular programs.

MANAGER ISSUES REPORT ON SIX-MONTH ACTIVITIES

A complete report of the past six months' activity within the various city departments was presented recently to the City Council by City Manager Ed Frank.

As a preface to the separate reports from the many department heads, Frank wrote a letter of summary which emphasizes the improvements accomplished during this period of time.

The letter read as follows:

"Herewith are submitted six-month reports from various departments for your information, showing the program of city operations as promulgated in the 1960-61 budget.

"The most significant matter, in my estimation, to be noted at this time, is that the general financial structure of the city is very sound. From a deficit, we have, as of January 1, operating cash for the working of the city in the amount of $600,049.76. All departments have followed strictly along the lines of budgetary control on all phases of the individual operation of the departments.

"In the Finance Department, the changes and procedures handling water department accounts, installation of the warehouse operation, renovation of the finance office, and the close supervision and coordination of this department and its relationship with other departments have contributed to making the operation of all the departments successful.

"In Public Works, which as you know, covers a number of different categories, it should be noted that the strengthening of the water department and street improvements, as well as general maintenance, were done at a very rapid rate in order to implement the time factors on weather, as well as following a general plan for improvements on a pay-as-you-go basis. Such projects as reservoir and pump-house improvements, water line replacements, the corporation yard building, Mission and Thiers street improvements (as well as other streets) renovation of the finance department, city garage, and park improvements are only a part of the many large and small budgetary items that have been accomplished during the first six-month period of the 1960-61 fiscal year.

"Police activities have increased both in the field and office. Improvements and procedures have been instituted in a general strengthening and coordination of police work, as evidenced in the report of the Police Chief. This has been necessary because of the heavier work load thrown on the department.

"Working toward a new classification by the Board of Fire Underwriters, bolstering the volunteer fire companies, reconstruction of the new 750-gallon pumper at a savings of approximately $15,000, and the fire prevention activities are some of the highlights of the Fire Department accomplishments during this six-month period.

"The Recreation Department has continued with a program that seems to have the approval of the citizens of Daly City. There has been closer cooperation with the schools in this field, and public relations have also been improved.

"Of course, outstanding in the Library Department has been the opening of the new $175,000.00 library, to the satisfaction of the community. Vast improvement of library services has been the natural result of this fine addition to Daly City.

"In the Clerk's office (which is elective) it should be noted that nearly one-half million dollars has been collected, and that a general streamlining of procedures has helped to keep this office at a minimum cost and still do the tremendous job of handling the public. An example of this is the fact that our city maps are now up to date, and are being constantly used by the general public.

"In all cases, the details of each department will be found in the reports of the department heads which accompany this letter.

"It is most gratifying to have the close cooperation of all commissions, department heads, and other personnel in carrying out the program and policies of the Council as indicated in the budget program and any subsequent legislation enacted during this period of time. A full report of the total year's activities and finances will be submitted to the Council at the end of the fiscal year."

Respectfully submitted, Edward Frank, City Manager.

YWCA Of North San Mateo County Offers New Classes For The Ladies

"Self improvement for the fair sex," is not just a term used by exclusive beauty salons but a practical and interesting idea for every woman in every community, according to Doris Fox, publicity director. Through the classes given by the YWCA of North San Mateo County the theme "Toward the Total You," has given a new and deeper meaning to self improvement, she said.

Two new classes that work toward this goal are: Career Advancement for the Business Woman, starting Monday, April 17 from 7:30 to 9 p.m. at 375 South Mayfair, Westlake, Room 209; and Self Improvement for the Homemaker, Executive on Tuesday, April 18 from 10 to 11:30 a.m. Both classes last for 6 weeks with a six dollar fee per session. Diane Darnell, new Y teacher, will instruct.

Trimastics is back again under Jean Sorenson's guidance on Monday, April 17 at Westmoor High from 8 to 9 p.m. There is also a Wednesday class starting April 19 at War Memorial Building in Daly City from 10 to 11 a.m. where a nursery is available for a slight fee. The 6 weeks session is $3 and a medical is required.

Golf classes under Bob Tempin's instruction will meet at the Colma Range on Tuesday, April 18 at 10 a.m. for beginners and 10:30 for intermediates. The 6 weeks fee is $6. Swimming at Larsen Pool with Jean Curry can round out a well planned start "toward the total you." A medical is required for the 6 weeks session beginning Friday, April 21, at 9 a.m. for beginners and 9:30 for the present classes.

Call the YWCA office at PL 6-7370 for pre-registration and any further information.

Girl Scouts, Brownies To Sell Their Cookies Beginning April 7

Hundreds of uniformed Girl Scouts — Brownies, Intermediates and Seniors, will start selling their now famous Girl Scout cookies, on April 7 through April 22.

There will be three kinds of delicious cookies — sandwich, Danish and chocolate mints at 50 cents per box.

The profits earned from the sale are used for the development and maintenance of the Girl Scout camps—day, troop, and established camps.

Mrs. Emile Fantelle, area cookie chairman, urges all Daly City-Colma residents to help the Girl Scouts by buying their cookies when they come to their door.

The older Girl Scouts, Intermediates and Seniors, will not only do house to house but will also set up tables in banks, markets, department stores and other places of business. Brownies will only sell cookies to relatives and immediate family friends.

'Balance Of Need' Campaign Shows Excellent Results

Current financial reports on the American Red Cross "balance of need" campaign on the Peninsula are showing gratifying results, according to Edson Sherrard, fund chairman for the San Mateo region of the Golden Gate chapter.

Nine bay area Red Cross chapters are presently in a drive to raise $431,000 in balance of need campaign with the sanction of the United Bay Area Crusade.

The current campaign is being conducted by letter only to special friends of Red Cross and to residents who did not contribute to the United Crusade during the recent campaign.

A goal of $35,000 has been set for the region from Daly City to Redwood City, and already one-third of that amount has been received, Sherrard said.

What has time done to your life insurance?

Everyone knows what can happen to the performance of a car that isn't serviced regularly. The same risk of "poor performance" holds true for your life insurance if you neglect to keep it up to date. Time brings changes in your life that in turn create the need for a review of your policies. Perhaps new beneficiaries should be appointed. Perhaps the method by which benefits are to be paid, either by income or by single amount, is no longer in your family's best interest. What would a careful review of your policies reveal? That you have more than enough life insurance — or that time has brought new needs for protection and saving?

By keeping in touch with the Man from Manufacturers you can be sure your life insurance is arranged to do the job you want it to do. Why not call him for a policy "check-up" today?

Recommend Plants For Rooms Where Little Sunlight Reaches

When you garden under a roof, be it in a sunny room or an open lanai, the amount of light that reaches a plant is severely restricted. There are degrees of restriction, of course, but what you plant will have to be satisfied with a minimum of that life-giving element, sunlight.

Fortunately, we have certain plants that thrive on dark going. You can grow them on a covered terrace backed up next to the house, or in an enclosed lanai which opens up only as the weather permits. They are usually non-blooming evergreens, to be sure, but their luxuriant, tropical-looking foliage is nice enough even without blooms.

Fatsia (or Aralia, if you prefer) is one of the shrubs we turn to time and again for use in light-shy places. The big, bold leaves retain their vigor and health even in the deepest shade, forming a pattern of graceful fans against the wall. Tub it for use inside or out.

Whoever conceived the idea of crossing Fatsia with Ivy to produce Fatsihedra deserves a medal. The vining habit of the Ivy and the bold leaf pattern of Fatsia combine to make a lush vining shrub for deeply shaded areas.

In the Philodendron family we have many number of candidates for indoor-outdoor culture, and all of them are good. Some are large-leaved and shrub-like; others are small of leaf and vining in habit, seeking whatever support is provided.

A member of the California Association of Nurserymen can show you the lot. He can also show you the handsome Wax Vine which, when it produces its waxy blooms in summer, is lovely to see and sniff. The glossy foliage is reason enough to plant the Wax Vine, though, and blooms are a bonus.

We can think of other good shrubs and nurseries abound with more than we can think of.

TV and Radio
By MONA BAKER

Sad but true is the fact that television opportunities for local performers in the Bay Area have been quite limited because so many of the programs are produced in either New York or Hollywood. So it was good news to learn about Phyllis Skelton, local television personality, who has landed a "TV plum."

She has been signed by the Bay Area

Hobbies Is Theme For Jeff Hi PTA's Next Thursday Meet

Family hobbies not only create a great deal of fun and pleasure, but also bring about strong family ties. The possibility of doing things together is a binding force in the home. It is around this theme that next Thursday's Jefferson High School PTA meeting revolves— "Creating Art with your Community," and family hobbies.

Gardening can be one such hobby and it is not only fun, but creates a great deal of beauty and pleasure, according to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kusbar who have made gardening their hobby and through it have fashioned a garden of charm and beauty. Fuchsia growing has become their prime specialty and it is a fascinating one. The couple have over 145 varieties of fuchsias in their charming garden. Mr. Kusbar will show his film on fuchsias. He spent three weeks taking colored movies of most of the fuchsias in bud-to-bloom sequence, time-lapsed photography. The 15-minute film, which has been shown to garden clubs all over the Bay Area, is considered an outstanding photographic feature by the Fuchsia Society.

The Art Department will also have an exhibit of the students' art work.

Installation of new officers will take place at this meeting with Mrs. Ann Eason acting as the installing officer.

All PTA members and their friends are invited to attend the meeting next Thursday evening, April 13, at 8 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

SURVIVAL CLASS ON AT WESTMOOR

"Replete with information which could save your life in the event of severe natural disaster or enemy attack." — This describes the adult course in Individual and Family Survival to be offered at Westmoor High School which started at 7 p.m. Monday.

Classes will run three hours each Monday for four consecutive weeks, and are open to the public without charge.

Is it possible to survive radioactive fallout? Could H-bombs really destroy our cities? Would we get any warning if an attack came? Or if a natural disaster, flood, earthquake, etc., threatened? What should the average citizen do in emergencies of this nature? These are the type questions which the course answers in detail. Your adult school is glad to bring information so vital to our people as a part of the school's community service.

The course is under the direction of Frank Terranova, who recently completed special training to teach it. It is being offered under the auspices of the Jefferson Evening School as part of a national project using professional educators for the first time in teaching survival concepts to the public.

"Burlingame," in San Mateo County, was named in 1868 for Anson Burlingame, U. S. Minister to China from 1861 to 1867.

Hire Mrs. Burt To Assist Morgan

To Assist Morgan

Mrs. Sue Burt, 25, will be Dist. Supt. Edward Morgan's new secretary beginning in late April. The trustees of the Jefferson Union High School approved her hiring Monday night. She will report April 17. She is presently secretary to the assistant superintendent of the Mountain View Elementary District.

The board also approved the hiring of Mrs. Alice Fix as counselor's secretary at Terra Nova High School; and the hiring of Mathilda Shaw as counselor's secretary at Westmoor.

Morgan showed the board a rough draft of a pictorial annual report publication about the district, which will be released during Public Schools Week.

The board asked Morgan to do more study and research on whether or not it would be possible to put in a dissipator (a mechanical gate) on a 60-inch pipe leading from the Oceana School property west into a ditch owned by the Division of Highways in order to slow down the flow of drainage water as it goes into the ditch. The district has been informed that this kind of dissipator would cost about $8,000. The board felt that this price was rather high, especially since it would be temporary and would be removed when the freeway goes into that area in a few years.

In other business the board: Awarded a contract to Fish, Firenze and McLean of Burlingame for construction of the Terra Nova track. Their bid was for $13,559.

Approved metal traffic covers for the five junction boxes at Oceana site.

Awarded some 70 vendors with contracts for approximately $220,000 worth of furniture and equipment for Oceana High School.

Set April 22 as date for a field trip to Crocker Estates to survey a possible school site. This property in question is east of Daly City, between Brisbane and Bayshore.

Tabled a discussion on the first draft of the 1961-62 budget until Dr. John Ivan, director of curriculum, returns.

Appointed Trustee James Cooper to represent the board at meetings of the nominating committee of the County Assn. of School Boards.

Approved the hiring of Greg Higgins as a librarian; Charles S. Olson as English teacher at Terra Nova; and Patrick J. Ryan as business education teacher.

Set April 17 as dinner date with the Jefferson High School Teachers Assn.

Five chairmen will be in charge of various areas composing the city, and a number of block workers. No previous experience in such drives is required, she said.

The men's group will meet for dinner in the basement of the Westlake Baptist Church, at Southgate and Elmwood streets. Cost will be a $1.50 per person. Anyone interested is invited to this meeting.

It will be a merry old time when Daly City Eagles get together Saturday night, April 15, for Young Timers Night, a welcome to all new members of the Aerie and auxiliary who joined the lodge during 1960-1961.

Worthy President Cliff Coffield announced that there will be lots of dancing and refreshments. There will be prizes for the best in such dance contests as the broom dance, tag dance, and waltzing.

More Than $1000 In Prizes Awarded At Arthur's Store

An estimated 400 persons turned out Wednesday evening to participate in a gigantic drawing celebrating the grand re-opening of Arthur's men's and boys' store in the Westlake Shopping Center.

The drawing, held in the mall, climaxed a two-week long re-opening event at Arthur's.

More than $1000 worth of prizes — men's apparel and furnishings — were awarded during the festive evening. Lucky holder of the first place ticket was Rudy Moreno of 70 Seal Rock, San Francisco. He received a complete man's outfit consisting of a Hart, Schaffner & Marx suit, a pair of Florsheim shoes, a Dobbs hat, 2 Arrow shirts, a belt, tie and three pair of hosiery.

The drawing ceremonies were presided over by Jack Kendre, managing director of the Westlake Shopping Center, with the assistance of Buck Hannon, advertising director for Henry Doelger Builder, Inc.

Official judges for the drawing were two well known local personalities, Frank Blum and Charles Becker, judges of the superior and municipal courts, respectively.

The two-week celebration at Arthur's was designed to introduce customers to the new and expanded facilities at the popular Westlake store. Remodeling work underway at Arthur's for several months was devoted to increasing the store's selling space by 36 percent, storage and tailoring facilities by 200 percent.

Coincidental with the expansion, the store opened two new departments: a men's shoe department, featuring Florsheim shoes and Evans Casuals; and a hat department, introducing the famous Dobbs line of headwear for men. The remodeling also made possible the doubling of sizes and selections in the boys' and young men's department and the expansion of the men's clothing, sportswear and furnishing department by one third.

The drawing ceremonies started at 9 p.m. and continued until winning tickets had been drawn for all of the 15 prizes. With the exception of one absentee, all the lucky ticket holders were present for the event.

Other prize winners, in order, included: Allyn Hutter, 40 Belmont; Mike Poskas, 343 Edinborough, S.F.; Ernest Hoppe, 293 S. Mayfair; Mrs. Rudolph Feldman, 51 Northridge; Mrs. George Jeretzky, 411 Westmoor; George Hillman, 511 B street, Colma; Pat Williams, 3151 Fasman drive; Don Bosberry, 126 Westlawn; Jeanne Howells, 1160 Galvez drive, Pacifica; Clyde Allen, 161 Marilita drive, S.F.; Arthur De Bardeleben, 141 Wilshire; Nancy Mitchell, 159 St. Francis boulevard; Mrs. A. Silvestri, 301 Paris, S.F.; W. Lenn George, 835 Wildwood court.

Big Turnout For Easter Egg Hunt

Approximately 400 persons, consisting of those who were young, and those just young at heart, jammed the Benjamin Franklin Garden Village playfields Saturday morning for the J. L. Snell Recreation Department's Fifth Annual Easter Egg Hunt.

Two prizes for each age group were awarded for the "gold" and "silver" eggs. In the 3-year-old and under age group, Mike Swanson received the first place Easter basket, while Mike Pinnell took second place. Bud Arnot and George Gummo discovered the gold and silver eggs, respectively, in the 4- to 5-year-old group, while Ricky Rodriguez and Mike Johnson did likewise for the 6-7 and 8-year-olds.

New Medical-Surgical Plan Is Available To Persons Over 65

Medical and surgical care is now available to individuals over 65 in a new prepaid medical plan offered by six medical group members of the Physicians and Surgeons Association, a non-profit organization.

The plan was announced in San Francisco by Bruce Glenn, vice president of the association set up to coordinate the program and is similar to the well-known Health Insurance Plan of New York. The Physicians and Surgeons Association is a state-wide organization and is the largest private practice prepayment plan in California.

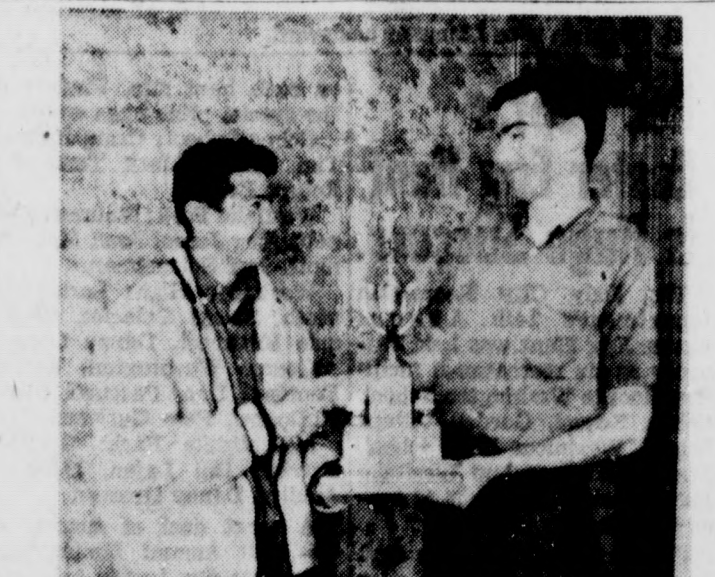

Recently becoming affiliated with the association is local resident Jack R. Baker, 844 Beechwood drive, who is manager of the Bay Medical Group Pharmacy. Baker has been active in civic affairs in this area for many years. He is past president of the Broadmoor Association, served as director of the association for six years and has been active on many civic committees.

Cost of the new medical-surgical plan for the subscriber is $3.80 a month or $11 if his family is covered. The plan pays for hospital calls, surgical care, specialist care, regular health examinations, diagnostic tests including X-rays, laboratory fees, eye examinations, glasses prescriptions and physical therapy. The charges are a $2 fee for an office call while a home visit costs $5.

Hospitalization benefits will be offered eventually by the plan. Such a plan is already available to retired federal employees.

Participating groups of the plan serve Daly City as well as all Bay Area communities. San Francisco offices of the Physicians and Surgeons Association are located at 999 Sutter.

TWO broadly beaming members of the Bearing Busters, a Daly City Car Club, heartily congratulate each other on the club's having won the participation trophy at a recent tri-club dance held at the Tanforan Clubhouse. The dance was sponsored by the Golden Gears, another DC club. Runnerup was the Gear Twisters of Westlake. Fourteen of the Bearing Busters' 15 members were present for the dance. At left is Don Sereni, 472 A St., Colma; at right, Milke Blume, 89 Vale. Both are Jeff High students.

Jeff Is Champ
At Ball Tourney

After suffering a 4-3 defeat in the ninth inning of their first game in the Menlo-Atherton Tournament last week, the Jefferson High Indians went on the warpath and pounded their way to the Consolation Championship.

Jeff met Mountain View — their first foes for the championship — squarely and handed them a 11-1 defeat.

The first inning of the contest found the Indians picking up two runs on a triple by Jack Fuentes, who scored on Tony Montalbo's bobbled ground ball. Next came George Claus who stepped to the plate and sent one deep into center field for a double, scoring Montalbo. Mountain View picked up their lone tally in the second frame on a round tripper by one of their men.

The Indians picked up two more in the third on a single by Rich Reitz, a walk by Jack Fuentes, a double by Tony Montalbo, and an error.

During the third and the seventh frames the Indians picked up four tallies, and in the seventh frame, Tony Montalbo started things off with a 400-foot homer, then Mike Kennedy drew a charity pass and scored on Johnny Souza's single, who later scored on pitcher Stan Montalbo's lone bagger.

In the third game of the tournament with both Jeff and Sequoia battling for the Championship, Jeff tasted sweet revenge by smashing the Sequoia 11 runs on 12 hits to top Sequoia totals of two runs and five hits. Sequoia had defeated Jeff a week earlier in a game.

The Indians lost no time as they scored two runs on two hits in the first frame. Lead off man Tom McEntee drew an infield single, moved to second on Stan Montalbo's sacrifice, stole third and scored on a double by Claus as did Tony Montalbo who drew a free pass. The Indians had a chance to pick up some runs as McEntee lead off the inning with a double and moved to third on a miscue by Sequoia's left fielder.

With a man on third and no outs the Sequoia hurler queued the fire by retiring the next three batters in succession.

But the Indians came back strong in the fourth and fifth frames as they picked up a total of nine runs and nine hits. Their big inning came in the fifth frame when Stan Montalbo led things off with a three bagger. Next came Fuentes unleashing another long drive for a two bagger, scoring Montalbo; then Claus drilled a line shot through the hole scoring Fuentes. Kennedy drew a charity pass and scored on back to back singles by Souza, and other scorers in the inning.

The only action on the part of the Cherokee came during the second frame when they picked up two runs and two hits.

Indian centerfielder Jack Fuentes also made the all-tournament team.

Rams Take First Spot
In SSF Tourney Meet

Westmoor High Schools varsity baseball team took first place in the South San Francisco Invitational Tournament by sweeping all three of their contests.

In the first round, the Rams touched Santa Rosa by the score of 9-3. The contest was decided in the first inning, when the Rams tallied a total of 6 runs in 6 hits. Back to back singles by Bill Hix and Terry Christman put runners on first and third with no outs. Hix scored on Rich Morales' double to left, with Christman advancing to third. Clean-up man Barry Krohn grounded out on a fielder's choice, bringing in Christman with the second run of the inning. A single to left by Cornell Holmes, brought in Morales.

An error by third-baseman Bill Archer on Steve Payette's ground ball again put 2 runners on base. Ram second sacker Steve Funai then singled to right field, loading the bases. Holmes scored from third on Ron Townsend's line single to center.

The final two runs of the inning came in when Archer threw the ball into right field in an attempt for a double-play on a ball hit by Scott Schakelford.

Starting pitcher, Terry Christman, received credit for the win. The Ram left-hander allowed 3 earned runs and 4 hits in 4 innings. Cornell Holmes finished the game, giving up only 1 unearned run and 3 hits on his 3 inning stint.

In the semi-finals, the Rams downed the highly rated Wildcats of St. Ignace High School, 5 to 3. Westmoor's Cornell Holmes stopped the Wildcats by giving up only 3 runs on 8 hits.

Shortstop Rich Morales, who collected 2 of the Rams 4 hits, was also their biggest man in the RBI department. In the fifth inning, with the bases loaded, Morales lined to left, scoring the 3 lead runners easily. Rich then got trapped between first and second. The foe's infield eventually nailed him in a rundown, but, in the meantime Terry Christman scampered across the plate with the third run of the frame.

For the final contest of the Tournament, Westmoor defeated Carmont, whose previous tourney victories were over Balboa and South San Francisco.

The hilltoppers again opened the game with a first inning rally. After a walk to Hix, a double by Christman, and an intentional walk to Morales had loaded the bases, Krohn hit the first pitch, a belt-high curve, far over the right-fielder's head for a grand-slam homerun.

In the second inning, the Rams scored an equal amount of runs, but in a slightly less spectacular manner. Singles by Hix and Christman, followed by another line single by Morales resulted in the first of 4 runs scored in the inning. After Krohn walked, Christman scored on a ball hit by Cornell Holmes, which the second baseman bobbled. Morales came in on a ground ball smashed by Steve Payette. Krohn was forced out on the play, so Payette's ball was scored as a fielder's choice. Steve Funai then singled to right, bringing in Holmes with the final run in the inning.

Volney Julaniel, who came in to relieve for Carmont in the second frame, settled down and held the Rams scoreless until the seventh inning. Westmoor's ninth run was scored in the seventh, when Steve Funai scored from first on Ron Townsend's stand-up triple down the right field line.

Winning Pitcher for the Rams was Terry Christman, who gave up 2 runs on 6 hits and 3 walks. Christman struck out seven on his way to picking up his second victory in the tournament.

In addition to gaining team honors as Tournament champions, Westmoor had three players on the all Tournament team. Terry Christman was selected as a pitcher, Barry Krohn for first, and Rich Morales at shortstop.

Something About Sports

By JIM KALLENBACH

Another week and here I am back again... What a whoppin' good time some 500 parents and youngsters had the other night at the '61 Boys' Basketball League awards which saw 58 boys, members of those league teams that made first place, receive blue ribbons, and 54 youngsters, members of the second place teams, receive the red ribbons. A team ribbon went to the coach or coaches of the various teams, also... Bob Eider got his blue ribbon for coachin' the Wildcats, as did Rich Brewer and Boyd Hilmyer for the Warriors. Everett Heick for the Darts, and Elmer T. Nelson for OLM. Red ribbons to coaches Gerald Piver (Hawks); George Pedroni (Tigers); Brewer and Hilmyer (Bobcats); and Bill Mendoza (Ben Franklin).

Highlighting the evening were the All-Star games between the sixth and seventh graders and the tussle between the eighth graders and a new, but not so promising local team by the name of the Daly City Roadrunners. In the first scrap, the sixth graders showed plenty of spirit but were outclassed by the seventh graders height, but it was still a good game. The battle between the Roadrunners (otherwise known as the coaches) and the eighth graders was something of a classic in comedy. The coaches came on to the floor looking like anything but basketballers. They wore cut-off clothing, big hats; one came in a baseball suit, etc.

Now the Rec Department wanted to be sure that no one got hurt, so takin' size and all into consideration, only five members of the Roadrunners were allowed on the court at any one time. To equalize matters more, only three of the Roadrunners could shoot, since there were only three steel helmets provided, and the rule was no helmet on, no shoot. Another "bad break" for the roadin' Roadrunners was that it was next to impossible to keep the blasted helmets on as they had no chinstraps. This little inconvenience prevented them from running too fast.

But the eighth graders, after awhile, wised up and started knocking a helmet off one of the coaches head and kicking the helmet over to the other end of the gym permitting only two shooters. Still the Roadrunners kept on, but alas, youth and superior body condition won out to the tune of 22-15. (Nice try anyway, coaches). The coaches later reportedly said they would have to give up smoking. Where's my Wheaties?

Since I've been talking about the Rec Department more or less, here is an interesting item for the grownups. The department is sponsoring an adult Volleyball League. The league is open to all residents of the city. Entries may be by teams or individuals. Individual entries will be assigned to teams. All entries must be in by Monday, April 17. League play starts the following week at Westmoor's gym.

Daly City has every reason to be proud of its Sea Scout unit, the first scouting organization that was formed in Westlake. Originally, it started out with one adult and five boys, using an old borrowed sailboat; the ship now boasts several adult leaders with more than $3,000 worth of equipment! Under Boatwain Dave Kazakoff, the group now has three divisions, each headed by a boatswain's mate. Each division has two crews, with each crew having its very own sailboat.

But that's not all. More to come. They have a total of five racing sloops and three smaller two-man sailboats, a six-place pulling boat which uses 14-foot ash sweeps.

Resident camping for Camp Fire Girls and Blue Bird Groups of San Mateo County is provided by camps owned and operated by various Bay Area Camp Fire Girls Councils. One of these is Camp Washi, located in the beautiful Santa Cruz Mountains on 158 acres, which offers them not only camping experience but plenty of sports activities.

Included in the summer programs are such sports as swimming, archery, hiking, and folk dancing, etc. This besides such activities as cookouts, singing, dramatics, crafts and nature projects. Sounds like fun, eh girls? And all that fresh mountain air, too!

For those who plan to be out Fremont way next Sunday, looks like there might be plenty of action over on the drag strip when Lou (The Granddaddy of Drag Racing) Cangelose of Kansas City and Chris Karamesines, a Chicago speed ace, race for the Eliminator title now held by Karamesines. The Missouri dragster's top speed is reportedly 186 mph with an elapsed time of 8.80 seconds! (Talk about flyin'!) However, he's got his work cut out for him 'cause Karamesines has the distinction of being the world's fastest driver, having been clocked once at 205.54 mph in the standing quarter-mile. A number of other drivers will be in the race.

Each driver will race during the morning to get the quickest time through the quarter-mile. The machine turning the lowest elapsed time will then race Karamesines for his title. In a two-out-of-three run off. Racing starts at 9; eliminations at 1:30. The strip is on Grimmer boulevard.

on each hunt site. Finders of the special prize eggs were:

Colma School: Craig Kaleiki, Tim Parish, Mark Tomassello, Robert Brown.

Westlake Park: Maureen Bennett, Meg Jones, Joan McDermott, Jeff Spiegelman.

Westmoor High: Lorie Kleutuch, Sheryl Palacios, Stephanie Kuehnert, Danny Cronin. George Washington: Steven Fontenot, Dana Pasucci, Bruce McDonnell, Pete Gutierrez.

Marchbanks Park: Garry Parrish, Bill Lajan, Danny Aguilar, Danny Greaser.

A great deal of success of the 14th Annual Easter Egg Hunt was due to the help and cooperation of several local PTA groups, the Hi-Fi Teen Club members, and the Girl Scouts who wrapped the eggs.

More than 700 sites and buildings have been designated as Historical Landmarks in California.

DC Drugs Wins 7-1

Their next game will be played Saturday afternoon at 1:30 at Parkmerced against the Miracra Baseball Club. George Benson coaches the Drug boys.

All-Stars Drop Foes:
League Teams Honored

The seventh grade and the eighth grade All-Stars trounced their opponents with speed and gusto at last week's Basketball Award Night event held in the gym of the War Memorial Building.

The sixth grade All-Stars fought gallantly but at hopeless odds and in the end fell to the seventh graders, 32-8.

The eighth grade All-Stars clipped the Daly City Roadrunners—a team composed of all the coaches—by a score of 22-15 in a game that hilariously highlighted the evening.

All three All-Star teams were composed of boys from various winning teams in the 1961 Boys Basketball League, which is sponsored by the Department of Recreation. The award night program was also sponsored by the department.

During the evening, Mayor Frank Pacelli presented ribbons to first and second place winning teams in the league. Blue ribbons went to the first place teams, and red ribbons went to second place winners.

Teams taking first place in the league were Our Lady of Mercy Wildcats, the Police Athletic League Warriors, the Aero Motor Darts, and Our Lady of Mercy.

Second place winning teams were the BYA (Better Youth Assn.) Hawks, BYA Tigers, PAL Bobcats and Ben Franklin.

The Wildcats and the Hawks, fifth grade teams, although they received ribbons, did not play in the evening's events. The Warriors and the Tigers are the top teams in the sixth grade division. The Darts and the Bobcats were singled out for the seventh grade division, and Our Lady of Mercy and Ben Franklin, tops in the eighth grade division.

Players for the sixth grade All-Stars were Mike Miller (BYA Tigers); Mike Wynn (BYA Tigers); Rex Arnett (BYA Richfield); Ron Smith (Oil Barons); Craig Planner (BYA Bears); Joe Farrell (BYA Bears); Duane Morin (OLM Dons); Bobby Fraher (OLM Dons); Larry Bicker (OLM Gaels); Mike Chellone and Kevin Carroll (OLPH); Keith Stoller and Matt Di Bernardi (PAL Warriors).

Another first has been registered at Westlake. Starting April 12 at 7:30 p.m. there will be weekly sessions of duplicate bridge with 30 minutes of instruction before play begins. Further information may be obtained by calling WY 2-1762.

The next two weeks are open play weeks at Westlake as many of the leagues are finishing and taking a week's layoff before starting their summer competition.

Joanne Pollat of the "Bowling Pollat Family" really rattled the pins at Bel Mateo last week with 192-152-190 for a 534 total.

The O'Connor Rug Cleaning team really cleaned up last Wednesday night led by Gary Brown's 267 game and 637 series. In the same league, George Wilson shot a tremendous 657 series on games of 224-219-214.

The girls in the daytime leagues continue to convert difficult splits like they own them. The following new members of the "Split Converters" joined the club last week: Ruth Luchi 5-10; June Edgerton 7-9; June Tarzey 5-10; Maxie Sweet 5-10; Anne Kler 3-10, 5-7 and 6-7-10; Arleen Bromante 5-10 twice; Lee Johnson 5-7; Myrtle Grassel 5-10; Ann Menn 4-7-9; Mary Cordano 6-7; Doris Cunningham 3-10 twice; Fran Warfield 3-7; Lala Murray 5-7; Helen Juiffre 3-10 and Estelle Marenstein 6-7-10.

Mol-Mac Floors registered 253/615 while George Homer of Westlake Towing turned in a 244/607 effort.

One hundred and ninety two bowlers were on hand for the "Western Night" Sunday Scotch Doubles. Carole Bacicco, Helen Juiffre and John Selsor won the prizes for the best costumes while May and John Morales won first prize for total score. A total of fifteen couples won awards, including the mystery score winners.

Tuesday was "Big E" night at the Bowl as 80 Emporium employees held their annual bowling party and buffet. The Stonestown store employees start their annual bowling league next week.

The Westlake Knolls league composed of employees and sub-contractors of the Henry Doelger organization, finished last week with the "brass" team winning top honors and a rolloff necessary to determine second place winner. The last night's high rollers were Gary Brown 213/566, Ernie Huber 198/580 and Rich Hartje 206/568.

As the Sunday morning Father and Son League draws to a close, plans are being made for the summer league which will start in a few weeks. Rich Dreier announces that already there are ten fathers and sons registered. Tom Cano led both the sons and the fathers last week with a 236 game and a 579 series.

Again the Junior Bowlers make news. In match game competition last week our "Bowlers of Tomorrow" defeated Bel Mateo, Bagdad and Boulevard Bowl teams. Also, Joe Morasco and Wayne Funai will receive trophies in addition to their 250 AIBC emblems for games of 257 and 259 respectively.

Wins Top Award

"Boris," the hefty Hereford steer exhibited by Diana Lee Hooper, 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob L. Hooper, 119 McKinney avenue, Pacifica, was graded "Prime" by the judges at the Grand National Junior Livestock Exposition at the Cow Palace early this past week.

Diana, a member of the Pacifica 4-H Club, was to sell the steer at the livestock auction with which the 1961 Junior Grand National ended last Wednesday.

Wilson & Geo. Meyer & Co., San Francisco business firm, contributed a share of the cost of Diana's steer as part of a city-country good will project in which about 30 San Francisco business and civic organizations participate.

John M. Hooper and John C. Flemer, representatives of the Meyer firm, paid a visit to the Hooper home just before the show to check on the steer's condition.

Under Diana's loving care, "Boris" weighed in near the top limit of 1100 lbs. at the opening of the show. Diana is a first-year student at the City College of San Francisco where she is taking a dental assistant
